HOW TO HELP

VOLUNTEERING

Interested in exploring unique marine and coastal environments, learning about the culture of Indonesia and socialize with locals of North Sulawesi? Join Manengkel Solidaritas!

As a volunteer, you will get the opportunity to learn about the outstanding ocean life of the region as well as embrace the chance to be involved in many activities with local communities. Volunteering with us provides a great opportunity to gain experience in research, education and conservation of marine and coastal environment.

CAREERS

If you are looking for an exciting, varied and meaningful job working to protect the beautiful environment of North Sulawesi look no further. We are a small organization but could always benefit from new talent that is passionate about conservation work. Based in Paal Dua, Manado, Sulawesi Utara whilst you will have a specific role within our organization there will opportunities to learn many new skills and contribute to a broad range of activities within Manengkel Solidaritas. Please see below for more details.
